Billing Rates for Fiscal Year 2011-2012

Dear Dr. Geivett:

The current fiscal crisis continues to present challenges and funding issues for our public sector clients. The budget picture from Sacramento seems to point to a "flat" year but that result is far from guaranteed. We know that some of our clients may be forced to ask employees and managers to participate in the solutions — for example, to freeze compensation or to freeze step movement or to reduce work days.

We view ourselves as part of your management team. That is why we:

- froze our partner rates at the 2007/2008 level for 2008/2009;
- froze our rates again in the Spring of 2009 for 2009/2010; and
- froze our rates again in the Spring of 2010 for 2010/2011.

We will freeze our rates again for 2011/2012. With this action, our partner rates have remained unchanged for five consecutive years.
